35. What is one cultural challenge Du Bois expects his daughter will face at school in England?

A Learning a new language
B Being looked at as different because of the color of her skin ✓
C Not being allowed to study music
D Having no friends her age

Why: He warns her that people in England may look at her differently because of her skin colour.

36. How does Du Bois advise his daughter to respond to that challenge?

A By going home immediately

B By arguing with everyone who stares

C By being proud of who she is and not letting it bother her ✓

D By hiding from other students

Why: He tells her to be proud of who she is and not to let it bother her.

37. Why does Du Bois recommend that his daughter do some "unpleasant things"?

A Because they build discipline and strong character ✓

B Because the school requires it

C Because her mother asked him to say so

D Because unpleasant things are more fun

Why: He says doing unpleasant things builds discipline and strong character.

38. In "After Twenty Years", what is most closely the meaning of "impressively" in: "The policeman on the beat moved up the avenue impressively"?

A noun | an idea, feeling, or opinion about someone

B adjective | having the ability to impress the mind

C verb | attempting to show off

D adverb | in a way that evokes admiration ✓

Why: «impressively» ends in -ly, so it is an adverb: moving in a way that evokes admiration.

39. Which inference is best supported by the text of "After Twenty Years"?

A Bob doesn't remember how tall Jimmy actually is.

B The officer walking the streets in the beginning of the story is Jimmy. ✓

C Jimmy was involved in a life of crime before becoming a cop.

D Jimmy lives on that street

Why: Bob says Jimmy was «the truest, staunchest old chap in the world».

47. What major difference in life choices is highlighted between Bob and Jimmy?

A Bob went West and made money through crime; Jimmy stayed in New York and became a policeman ✓

B Bob became a teacher; Jimmy became a sailor

C Both stayed in New York but stopped talking

D Jimmy went West; Bob stayed and opened a restaurant

Why: Bob got rich in the West (by crime); Jimmy stayed in New York as a policeman.

48. How long had 'Silky' Bob been under arrest before he realized he was talking to a plainclothes officer?

A About an hour

B About ten minutes ✓

C Two days

D Twenty years

Why: The tall man says: «You've been under arrest for ten minutes, Silky Bob.»

49. Who was the note given to 'Silky' Bob from?

A The tall plainclothes officer

B Big Joe Brady

C Jimmy Wells ✓

D Chicago police

Why: The note is signed «JIMMY».

50. Why does O. Henry use a twenty-year gap in the story?

A To show how much people can change over time ✓

B To describe the city of New York

C To explain how restaurants are built

D To make the story shorter

Why: Twenty years is long enough for both friends to change completely.

Part 4: Collective Nouns

💡 Collective-noun rule: acting collectively (as one group) → singular verb (is / was / has); acting separately → plural verb (are / were / have).
